SUGGESTED AMENDMENT TO CIA REGULATIONS

(a) AND (b)

ILLEGIB

C. Per Diem and Mileage

(a) Per diem and mileage rates provided under existing laws and regulations represent the maximum allowable. Officials authorized to issue travel orders will reduce the stipulated rates whenever available information indicates that the maximum rates will exceed the necessary official travel expenses. Where temporary duty will require more than a two-months stay at one station, consideration should be given to a change in official station or to a reduction in the per diem granted. Per diem at one temporary duty station in excess of 180 days shall be authorized only with the personal approval of the Deputy Directors, Assistant Directors, or Office Heads.

(b) For extended periods of temporary duty at the same post in the United States, normally the following schedule of maximum rates shall apply:

(1) Newly hired personnel, without dependents, on temporary duty at Headquarters enroute to their first overseas station, or placed on temporary duty at a point other than Washington for training or cover purposes, shall be authorized per diem not to exceed the following rates:

30 days	$9.00 per day
90 days	4.50
60 days	1.50
Additional temporary duty at same station as specifically authorized	1.50

(2) All other personnel on authorized temporary duty regardless of dependency status shall be authorized per diem not to exceed the following rates:

60 days	$9.00 per day
60 days	6.00
60 days	3.00
Additional temporary duty at same station as specifically authorized	3.00

(3) Individuals on temporary duty at Headquarters who are authorized interim temporary duty at other points in the U. S. and who after completion of the interim temporary duty return to Washington for additional temporary duty prior to departure for the overseas station shall be authorized per diem not to exceed the following rates:
